

St. Francis Xavier PTA Character Scholarship

Dear St. Francis Xavier School Alumni,

With great pride in all of our graduates, the Parent-Teacher Association of your elementary alma mater is pleased to invite you to apply for a $500.00 scholarship. If you would like to apply, please complete the application and write an essay answer to the prompt.

Criteria for applicants:

- Applicants must have graduated from 8th grade at St. Francis Xavier School.
- Applicants must plan to enroll in the fall of the new school year into an accredited Bachelor's or Associate's degree program.
- The scholarship will be paid directly to the university/school of the recipient's choice after the awards ceremony.
- The application must be postmarked or emailed by May 1 of the current year. scholarship recipients will be announced at the May PTA meeting, notified via cell phone, and an award certificate presented at the Award Assembly in May.

The PTA selection committee will place heavy emphasis on the content and grammar of the applicant's essay. Any essay submitted for this scholarship award may be used (with the author's name and the SFX graduating school year) in public relations, newsletters, websites, press releases, and other printed, internet, or broadcast media by St. Francis Xavier School and Church.

Please mail the completed application and essay to:
